Overview

Bradley W. Mantzell is a Principal and Vice President of Commercial Lines with more than 35 years of insurance and risk management experience. He specializes in helping growth-oriented businesses lower their total cost of risk through comprehensive risk identification, contract analysis, loss prevention initiatives, workplace safety programs, alternative risk financing, and customized risk management strategies.

Brad earned a Bachelor of Arts in Finance and Business Administration from Grove City College. He expanded his industry expertise by earning the Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC), Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU), and Certified Risk Architect (CRA) designations. He also maintains Property & Casualty, Life & Health, and Surplus Lines insurance licenses.

Throughout his career, Brad has received numerous professional and community recognitions, including Westfield Group's Most Valuable Producer (MVP) Award for the South Metro Atlanta region, the Penn Northwest Development Corporation Improvement Movement Team Champion Award, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania House of Representatives Citation, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Senate Citation, and Junior Achievement Mercer County Volunteer of the Year recognition.

Today, he works closely with organizations across a variety of industries, including manufacturing, construction, chemical, oil & gas, and nonprofit and social service organizations. His consultative approach helps clients identify exposures, reduce losses, and implement long-term risk management solutions that support sustainable growth.

Beyond his professional responsibilities, Brad remains active in community and economic development initiatives throughout the region. He has served in leadership roles with Penn-Northwest Development Corporation, Junior Achievement of Mercer County, Young Life PennWest, and the Shenango Valley Economic Development Corporation. He is also a member of Grace Fellowship Church.

Outside of work, Brad enjoys fly fishing, hunting, hiking, water skiing, running, and spending time outdoors with family and friends. He is currently training for his second half marathon. Brad resides in West Middlesex, Pennsylvania with his wife, Tracy. They are the proud parents of three grown children, grandparents to their grandson, and owners of two Golden Retrievers. A fun fact about Brad is that he was the Coweta County, Georgia Lumberjack Champion from 2006 through 2008.
