Overview

Kolten Hoffman is a Business Risk Advisor specializing in commercial insurance and risk management solutions for businesses. He provides high-level insurance and risk management services to clients and prospects, helping organizations identify exposures, evaluate risk, and implement strategies designed to protect their operations and support long-term success.

Kolten joined Gilbert's Risk Solutions in 2011 following his graduation from Gannon University and has been with the organization for 15 years. Throughout his career, he has focused on helping businesses better understand and manage their risk profiles through proactive risk assessment, exposure identification, and strategic insurance planning.

In 2012, Kolten earned the Certified Risk Manager (CRM) designation, followed by the Certified Risk Architect (CRA) designation in 2013. He has also earned the Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) designation in 2016. These professional credentials reflect his commitment to continued education and his expertise in helping organizations navigate complex risk management and insurance challenges.

Kolten graduated from Gannon University in 2011 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics and a minor in Statistics. During his time at Gannon, he earned numerous academic and athletic honors, including the Archbishop John Mark Gannon Award for General Scholastic Excellence, the Gannon University Academic Award for Excellence in Mathematics, three Academic All-District First Team selections, two Pennsylvania Scholastic Athletic Conference Spring Top 10 Awards, and First Team Academic All-American recognition in 2011. He graduated with a perfect 4.0 GPA and was a member of both the university's football and baseball programs.

Beyond his professional responsibilities, Kolten remains actively involved in the community through the Sharon Rotary Club and the West Middlesex High School Athletic Hall of Fame Board. He also serves as Head Baseball Coach at West Middlesex High School, a role he has held since 2021.

Outside of work, Kolten enjoys spending time with his family and supporting student-athletes through his involvement in high school athletics. He resides in Hermitage, Pennsylvania with his wife, Madeline, and their children, Peyton and Karsyn.
